Re: Docket No. 26-05-10 – Application of CL&P d/b/a Eversource Energy to Amend its Rate Schedules

Dear Attorneys Pace, Crisp, Bidra, and Pardee:

On October 14, 2026, The Connecticut Light and Power Company d/b/a Eversource Energy (Company) submitted a motion (Motion No. 87) to the Public Utilities Regulatory Authority (Authority or PURA) requesting an extension of time from October 16, 2026, to October 23, 2026, for the Company to submit its response to Interrogatory OCC-905 and an extension from October 19, 2026, to October 26, 2026, to submit its responses to Interrogatories OCC-923, OCC-924, OCC-925, OCC-926, and OCC-927 (collectively, Outstanding OCC Set 25; together with Interrogatory OCC-905, Outstanding Interrogatories). The Company asserts it seek an extension because the Outstanding Interrogatories require "in-depth research, data extraction, analysis and review, and input from subject matter experts and numerous individuals from various parts of the organization, including management personnel and legal counsel . . . ." Motion No. 87, p. 2.

The Company conferred with the Office of Consumer Counsel (OCC), and OCC does not consent to the extension due to the forthcoming October 21, 2026 pre-filed testimony deadline. Id., p. 3. The Company states it will endeavor to provide a timely response to the Outstanding Interrogatories. Id.

The Authority grants Motion No. 87, with modification.[1] Specifically, in light of the upcoming pre-filed testimony deadline and OCC's withholding of consent to the extension, the Company's responses to the Outstanding Interrogatories now due on or before Tuesday, October 20, 2026, at noon. To the extent the Company completes its response to any of the subparts of the Outstanding Interrogatory in advance of the new due date, the Authority requests that the Company submit those completed subparts.

By the following commissioner,

Thomas H. Wiehl
Chairman
