Re: Docket No. 26-05-10 – Application of CL&P d/b/a Eversource Energy to Amend its Rate Schedules

Dear Attorneys Pace, Crisp, Bidra, and Pardee:

On October 19, 2026, The Connecticut Light and Power Company d/b/a Eversource Energy (Company) submitted a motion (Motion No. 91) to the Public Utilities Regulatory Authority (Authority or PURA) requesting an extension of time from October 22, 2026, to October 29, 2026, for the Company to submit its response to Interrogatory ALLCO-155, ALLCO-156, ALLCO-157, ALLCO-159, ALLCO-161, ALLCO-162, ALLCO-167, OCC-960, OCC-965, and OCC-966 (collectively, Outstanding Interrogatories). The Company asserts it seeks an extension because the Outstanding Interrogatories require "in-depth research, data extraction, analysis and review, and input from subject matter experts and numerous individuals from various parts of the organization, including management personnel and legal counsel . . . ." Motion No. 91, p. 2.

The Company conferred with the Office of Consumer Counsel (OCC), and OCC does not consent to the extension. Id., p. 3. It is unclear whether the Company conferred with Allco Finance Limited (Allco). The Company states it will endeavor to provide a timely response to the Outstanding Interrogatories. Id.

The Authority grants Motion No. 91, with modification.[1] Specifically, in light of OCC's withholding of consent to the extension and the lack of information regarding whether Allco opposes or consents to the extension, the Company's responses to the Outstanding Interrogatories now due on or before Monday, October 26, 2026, at 4:00

[1] This ruling is being issued by the commissioner indicated. A motion for full panel review of this ruling by the commissioners assigned to this docket may be filed within 14 days of this ruling.

p.m. To the extent the Company completes its response to any of the subparts of the Outstanding Interrogatory in advance of the new due date, the Authority requests that the Company submit those completed subparts.

By the following commissioner,

Thomas H. Wiehl
Chairman
