Re: Docket No. 26-05-10 – Application of CL&P d/b/a Eversource Energy to Amend its Rate Schedules

Dear Attorneys Pace, Crisp, Bidra, and Pardee:

On October 14, 2026, The Connecticut Light and Power Company d/b/a Eversource Energy (Company) submitted a motion (Motion No. 85) to the Public Utilities Regulatory Authority (Authority or PURA) requesting an extension of time from October 14, 2026, to October 21, 2026, for the Company to submit its response to Interrogatory RRU-86[1] and an extension from October 19, 2026, to October 23, 2026, to submit its responses to Interrogatories OCC-902 and OCC-906 (jointly, Outstanding OCC Set 24 Interrogatories) and NECTA-116 (together with Interrogatory RRU-86 and the Outstanding OCC Set 24 Interrogatories, Outstanding Interrogatories). The Company asserts it seek an extension because the Outstanding Interrogatories require "in-depth research, data extraction, analysis and review, and input from subject matter experts and numerous individuals from various parts of the organization, including management personnel and legal counsel . . . ." Motion No. 85, pp. 2–3.

The Company conferred with the Office of Consumer Counsel (OCC), and OCC does not consent to the extension due to the forthcoming October 21, 2026 pre-filed testimony deadline. Id., p. 3. The Company states it will endeavor to provide a timely response to the Outstanding Interrogatories. Id. The Company also reached out to New England Connectivity and Telecommunications Association (NECTA); however, NECTA's attorney was not available to respond to the Company's proposed extension request. Id., p. 4.

The Authority grants Motion No. 85, with modification.[2] Specifically, in light of the upcoming pre-filed testimony deadline, OCC's withholding of consent to the extension, the unavailability of NECTA's attorney to respond to the extension request, and this being the second extension of Interrogatory RRU-86's due date, the Company's responses to the Outstanding Interrogatories now due on or before Tuesday, October 20, 2026, at noon. To the extent the Company completes its response to any of the subparts of the Outstanding Interrogatory in advance of the new due date, the Authority requests that the Company submit those completed subparts.

Thomas H. Wiehl
Chairman
