Re: Docket No. 26-05-10 – Application of CL&P d/b/a Eversource Energy to Amend its Rate Schedules

Dear Attorneys Pace, Crisp, Bidra, and Pardee:

On September 18, 2026, The Connecticut Light and Power Company d/b/a Eversource Energy (Company) submitted a motion (Motion No. 59) to the Public Utilities Regulatory Authority (Authority) requesting an extension of time from September 23, 2026, to September 30, 2026, for the Company to submit its response to Interrogatories OCC-590, OCC-594, OCC-602, OCC-603, and NECTA-8, NECTA-9, NECTA-15, NECTA-17, NECTA-23, and NECTA-63 (collectively, Outstanding Interrogatories). The Company asserts it seek an extension because the Outstanding Interrogatory requires "in-depth research, data extraction, analysis and review, and input from subject matter experts and numerous individuals from various parts of the organization . . . ." Motion No. 59, p. 2. The Company conferred with the Office of Consumer Counsel (OCC), and OCC does not consent to the extension due to the forthcoming October 21, 2026 pre-filed testimony deadline. Id., p. 3. The Company also conferred with New England Connectivity and Telecommunications Association (NECTA), and NECTA consents to the extension. Id.

The Authority grants Motion No. 59, with modification.[1] Specifically, in light of the upcoming pre-filed testimony deadline, the Company's responses to the Outstanding Interrogatories are now due on or before Monday, September 28, 2026, at noon. To the extent the Company completes its response to any of the subparts of the Outstanding

[1] This ruling is being issued by the commissioner indicated. A motion for full panel review of this ruling by the commissioners assigned to this docket may be filed within 14 days of this ruling.

Interrogatory in advance of the new due date, the Authority requests that the Company submit those completed subparts.

By the following commissioner,

Thomas H. Wiehl
Chairman
