Docket No. 26-05-10

Please! NO MORE RATE HIKES for Electric!

My husband lost his job two months ago. Despite sending out hundreds of resumes, he has only had a handful of interviews, and it's not looking like he will have a job soon. We have a child in college and are being squeezed between supporting our children and our parents. We just can't afford any more rate increases!

My 95-year-old father (a Korean war veteran) just spent his entire Social Security check on town taxes so he won't lose his home. How is he supposed to eat and afford an electric rate increase?
