Re: Docket No. 26-05-10 – Application of CL&P d/b/a Eversource Energy to Amend its Rate Schedules

Dear Attorney White:

On July 28, 2026, the Office of Consumer Counsel (OCC) submitted a motion (Motion No. 17) to the Public Utilities Regulatory Authority (Authority or PURA). In Motion No. 17, OCC requests that the Authority issue a "Notice of Admitted Evidence" admitting Interrogatories OCC-1 through OCC-40 (26-06-04 Interrogatories) propounded by OCC to the Connecticut Light and Power Company d/b/a Eversource Energy (Eversource) in Docket No. 26-04-06, which at the time was entitled "PURA Investigation into Cybersecurity Practices and Procedures of the Public Service Companies," and Eversource's responses thereto, in the above-referenced proceeding. Motion No. 17, p. 1. OCC asserts that admitting the 26-06-04 Interrogatories and the responses thereto in the above-referenced proceeding will "permit OCC to continue its investigation of the cybersecurity incident in a contested proceeding specifically involving only Eversource (as opposed to a generic docket involving all utilities) . . . ." Id.

Subsequently, the Authority changed the title of Docket No. 26-06-04 to "Investigation of Eversource Companies Data Breach of Customer Information." Notice of Proceeding, Aug. 7, 2026, Docket No. 26-06-04, p. 1. In addition, the Authority issued a Notice of Proceeding in Docket No. 26-04-06, directing OCC to "conduct discovery concerning the attack, and, together with Eversource, . . . adhere to the procedural order set forth . . . ," which includes the provision of a status update regarding whether OCC requests any additional investigation into the cybersecurity attack. Id.

Since OCC may continue its investigation of the cybersecurity attack in Docket No. 26-06-04, the Authority finds the admission of the 26-06-04 Interrogatories and the responses thereto in the above-referenced proceeding is no longer necessary. Therefore, the Authority deems Motion No. 17 moot.[1]
