Good evening, Chair Wiehl,

This email is to let you know that we made a decision to have the Regulatory Team pause their filing efforts today in the CL&P rate case. Today, answers were due on OCC Set 17 and EOE Set 5. The team is preparing to make several filings tonight on these sets. However, the filings will not be able to complete all answers due today. The bulk of these questions pertain to storm costs, and the ERP team and other staff are fully preoccupied with preparing for the Nor'easter hitting the state overnight and are therefore unable to participate in the final review and preparation of the filings.

We plan to try to have everything in by Monday morning, pending the actual circumstances of the storm. We have informed OCC and EOE of this situation.

We appreciate your patience and understanding.

Jonathan
