STATE OF CONNECTICUT

PUBLIC UTILITIES REGULATORY AUTHORITY

DOCKET NO. 26-08-04
ANNUAL SHARED CLEAN ENERGY FACILITY PROGRAM REVIEW – YEAR 8

NOTICE OF TECHNICAL MEETING
(September 17, 2026)

The Public Utilities Regulatory Authority (Authority or PURA) initiated this proceeding to conduct an annual review of the Shared Clean Energy Facility (SCEF) Program and to consider any modifications for the upcoming Year 8 Procurement. By September 1 of each year, the electric distribution companies (EDCs) are required to jointly file with the Authority the current SCEF Program Manual and all Request for Proposal documents and to propose modifications "that will allow the SCEF Program to better meet the Program Objectives." Decision, Dec. 7, 2022, Docket No. 22-08-04, Annual Review of Statewide Shared Clean Energy Facility Program Requirements – Year 4, p. 31. By the same September 1 deadline, the Department of Energy and Environmental Protection (DEEP) also submits its proposed Procurement Price Cap and Bid Preferences to the Authority, and any proposed changes to the SCEF Program Manual. Id.

Accordingly, the Authority will review the EDCs' and DEEP's proposals and consider any modifications to the procurement process and associated documents for Year 8 of the SCEF Program. The Authority may also review customer enrollment implementation and may include additional relevant topics at its discretion. The Authority is conducting this uncontested proceeding pursuant to General Statutes §§ 16-19e and 16-244.

A technical meeting of the Authority staff, docket participants, and interested stakeholders will be held on Thursday, September 17, 2026, starting at 9:00 a.m., via remote access. Technical Meeting topics are outlined below.

Technical Meeting Topics

The Authority will use this Technical Meeting to receive information on the topics included in the Notice of Request for Written Comments issued on August 25, 2026. These topics include: (1) procurement price caps; (2) budget reallocation; (3) bid preferences; and (4) proposed programmatic changes.

The Authority directs the EDCs to deliver a presentation on the topics contained in the August 25, 2026 Notice of Request for Written Comments.

Further, the Authority invites stakeholders to present on any of the above-mentioned topics. The Authority tentatively plans to structure the Technical Meeting as follows: (1) EDC presentation and questions; (2) stakeholder presentations and questions; and (3) public comments.

All participants and interested stakeholders planning to present or otherwise provide comments at the Technical Meeting must provide a list of speakers, along with a designation of speaker by topic with an estimated time to present on each topic, to the PURA case coordinator, Ussawin (Robin) Bumpen, via email at ussawin.bumpen@ct.gov, by 9:00 a.m. on Thursday, September 10, 2026. The Authority will issue a draft agenda for the Technical Meeting. All participants and interested stakeholders providing presentations must file their presentations through the Authority's web filing system and provide a copy to the PURA case coordinator by 9:00 a.m. on Monday, September 14, 2026.

The Technical Meeting will take place via remote access. Access instructions are set forth below.
