Re: Docket No. 26-08-07, Innovative Energy Solutions Program Cycle 05 – Compliance with Order No. 4 in Docket No. 17-12-03RE05 – Documentation for Innovative Energy Solutions Program Cycle 5

Dear Mr. Gaudiosi:

Order No. 4 of the March 30, 2022 Final Decision of the Public Utilities Regulatory Authority (the "Authority") in Docket No. 17-12-03RE05, PURA Investigation into Distribution System Planning of the Electric Distribution Companies –Innovative Technology Applications and Programs (Innovation Pilots) (the "Final Decision") states:

> No later than September 16, 2022, the EDCs shall submit as compliance (i.e., not for Authority approval) in the appropriate IES Program cycle docket (i.e., Docket No. 22-08-07) a Grid Needs Assessment, Customer Needs Assessment, Existing Program Inventory, and Preferred Focus Areas, and any other documentation or information proposed in the Implementation Plan to be provided prior to the beginning of the first IES Program cycle.

The Connecticut Light and Power Company d/b/a Eversource Energy ("Eversource") and Avangrid subsidiary, The United Illuminating Company ("UI", together with Eversource the "Electric Distribution Companies" or "EDCs") hereby jointly submit as compliance the attached "Required Documentation for Innovative Energy Solutions Program Cycle 5" containing the information required by Order No. 4 of the Final Decision. The EDCs also submit associated attachments to that document as referenced therein (ES-Attachments 1-5 and UI-Attachments 1-12).

Should you have any questions regarding this filing, please do not hesitate to contact Marrina Gallant, Energy Efficiency Consultant, at marrina.gallant@eversource.com; or Michael Crowley, Manager – Clean Energy Policy, UI, at michael.crowley@uinet.com.

The undersigned certify that a copy of this filing was served on all parties on this service list in this proceeding on this date.
