Connecticut Industrial Energy Consumers
540 Broadway, P.O. Box 22222, Albany, New York 12201-2222 • (518) 426-4600

October 8, 2026

VIA ELECTRONIC FILING

Jeffrey R. Gaudiosi, Esq.
Executive Secretary
State of Connecticut Public
Utilities Regulatory Authority
Ten Franklin Square
New Britain, CT 06051

Re: Docket No. 26-09-03 – Application of the Connecticut Light and Power Company d/b/a Eversource Energy to Issue Long-Term Debt – CIEC Motion for Participant Status

Dear Mr. Gaudiosi:

Pursuant to the Connecticut Gen. Stat. § 16-19pp, the Connecticut Industrial Energy Consumers ("CIEC") submits this Motion to be designated as a participant in the above-referenced proceeding.

CIEC is a coalition of industrial and large commercial end-users that collectively employ tens of thousands of Connecticut workers at numerous locations throughout the State, including in the service territory of The Connecticut Light and Power Company d/b/a Eversource Energy ("CL&P"). As large, high-load-factor customers, the safety, reliability, resiliency, and cost of the electric delivery service provided by CL&P is of significant importance to CIEC members.

The Authority established this proceeding to address an application submitted by requesting the Authority's approval "to issue long-term debt securities in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $1.15 billion during a period from the date of PURA's decision in this docket through December 31, 2027."[1] The costs associated with any long-term debt securities the Authority deems to be in the best interest of ratepayers ultimately will be recovered from, and impact the rates of, CL&P utility customers including but not limited to CIEC members. Accordingly, CIEC's members have substantial interests in this proceeding and the interests of CIEC's members – industrial and large commercial end-users – are not otherwise exclusively represented in this proceeding by any other party. Thus, CIEC is requesting participant status in this proceeding.

[1] Docket No. 26-09-03, Application of the Connecticut Light and Power Company d/b/a Eversource Energy to Issue Long-Term Debt, Notice of Proceeding (issued September 24, 2026).

CIEC requests that the following individuals be listed on the Service List in this proceeding:

Amanda De Vito Trinsey, Esq.
S. Jay Goodman, Esq.
Couch White, LLP
540 Broadway, P.O. Box 22222
Albany, New York 12201-2222
Tel: 518-426-4600
Fax: 518-426-0376
E-mail: adevito@couchwhite.com
jgoodman@couchwhite.com

CIEC plans to participate in this docket to the extent necessary to protect its members' interests, including receiving and reviewing information filed in this docket, participating in the discovery process, reserving the right to submit comments, testimony, and other pleadings on the same dates and at the same times as other participants, as well as participating in hearings, filing a brief, reply brief, written exceptions, and presenting oral argument in this proceeding on the same dates and at the same times as other participants.

I certify that a copy of this submission has been sent to all parties and/or participants of record as of this date, and has also been filed with the Authority as an electronic web filing and is complete.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

CONNECTICUT INDUSTRIAL ENERGY CONSUMERS

S. Jay Goodman

S. Jay Goodman, Esq.

cc: Service List (via e-mail)