Exhibit D-5

The Applicant intends for submetered tenants to bring complaints to its property manager in the first instance. A final property management company has not yet been determined, but the Applicant intends to select a manager that has an on-site presence. In addition to an in-person visit, the property manager can be contacted by phone and email. Once selected, Applicant will file property manager contact information in this proceeding.