The Connecticut Light and Power Company
Investor Relations Expenses
For the Calendar Years Ending 2025 and Rate Year
(Thousands of Dollars)

Description	Calendar Year 2025	Rate Year Ending 6/30/2028 (a)	Detailed Description
Investor Relations
Payroll	$ 132	$ 141	Includes “Labor Straight Time Exempt” and “Labor – Non-Productive Exempt” payroll charged to the Investor Relations Accounting Work Order (“TRIR0C04”).
Benefits	87	93	Includes “General Service Company Benefit Loader” activity charged to the Investor Relations Accounting Work Order (“TRIR0C04”) in relation to the payroll that was charged.
Benefits	19	20	Includes “Non-Productive Time Loader” activity charged to the Investor Relations Accounting Work Order (“TRIR0C04”) in relation to the payroll that was charged.
Employee Expenses	13	14	Primarily relates to Employee Expenses that were charged to the Investor Relations Accounting Work Order (“TRIR0C04”). This includes expenses related to travel ($9.3), meals ($2.1), mileage ($.1), registrations and conference expense ($1.2), and other ($.2).
Dues & Subscriptions	200	213	Further broken down into the following items: •NYSE Fees ($80.3): reflects annual fees for the New York Stock Exchange. •Broadridge and Other Street Solicitors ($76.5): Broadridge and other street solicitors are used to send our annual report and proxy vote requests to shareholders of Eversource Energy (Eversource) through brokerage accounts. •Annual Report Printing ($7.5): these costs reflect the printing services for the Eversource annual report made available to shareholders prior to the annual meeting. •Proxy Statement Printing ($5): these costs reflect the printing services for the Eversource shareholders prior to the annual shareholder meeting. •Computershare ($20.9): these costs reflect monthly fees to our transfer agent, plus costs related to the annual shareholder meeting. •FactSet ($6.5): these costs reflect the fees for the subscription to the database of institutional shareholders of Eversource. .•Proxy Solicitors ($3): these costs relate to service fees for our proxy solicitor, D.F. King. .•DTCC ($0.3): reflects annual fees to Depository Trust Company for security position reports used for the annual meeting.
Total Investor Relations	$ 451	$ 480

(a) Expenses are in multiple schedules in the Cost of Service. A standard escalation rate was used to estimate the rate year amount.